AEROPLANE DE LUXE

L. C. BRAND WILL HAVE THE
FINEST ONE EVER BUILT,
TIS SAID

L. C. Brand's aviation field and mammoth hangar just north of Glendale will soon receive a new occupant, which, it is said, will be the finest, costliest and most luxurious ever built. The parts of this new aeroplane are now being assembled and put together at Venice, where the trial trip will be made Wednesday. It is built entirely of mahogany, so reports go, with many parts nickel plated, has deep plush-lined seats and presents a beautiful appearance. Aviators who have seen its parts say it will be the finest ever built from the standpoints of beauty, power and endurance. The motor is a Liberty of 4000 horse-power and it uses 35 gallons of gasoline an hour. The trip from Glendale to San Francisco can be made in three hours and the machine can ascend to a height of six miles if desired. The wing spread is 43 feet, six inches, and it stands nine feet from the ground. Its speed is twice that of the average aeroplane. There is a cellorette and a good-sized lunch box in the body of the car. When fully loaded the weight will be 4000 pounds. Three passengers can be carried. This magnificent queen of the air, which its builder believes represents the nearest approach to aerial perfection that study and experience have developed, will be kept in the hangar at Mr. Brand's "castle" as his Glendale residence is called, and will be used for long distance business and pleasure trips.

THORNYCROFT SANITARIUM

A new administration building for the Thornycroft Hospital and Sanitarium is in course of construction at Windsor Road and Adams street, to accommodate the increased patronage of the establishment. The building will be of Mexican architecture with 120 feet of glassed-in sun porches for the benefit of convalescent patients. The upper story will be fitted up as apartments for the owner, Mrs. N. Maxwell Miller. The cost of the administration building will be $8,000.00. The government is now sending some of the returned soldiers there, quite a number having already arrived. All of these soldiers have been gassed, some as many as five times. Nearly all of them are able to be up and around. Practically all of these boys were originally from Glendale, and their being sent to their home town for treatment and rest affords their resident friends ample opportunity for extending them courtesies in the way of flowers, magazines, etc.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR JAMES FIFE

In honor of James Fife's twelfth birthday, his mother, Mrs. J. Morgan Fife, gave him a party at the home, 517 North Jackson street, Saturday afternoon. The time was spent in playing baseball and other games, hunting peanuts, etc. Refreshments were served at 4:30 by Mrs. Fife, who also assisted in entertaining the boys, with the aid of Mrs. Ina Randolph and Margaret Fife. The presents brought by the guests were numerous and varied and they were much appreciated by James. Those present were Fred McCormick, Billy Pigg, Leighton Taylor, Gordon MacRae, Ben McLouth, Dewey McComb, Riley Lyons, Shirley Preston, Robert Boyd, Robert Ayers, Douglas and Kenneth White.

"THE BEST DRINK"

SERMON BY REV. HORACE SANDERSON AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, at Synod in Santa Barbara, Rev. Horace Sanderson from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, preached at the Presbyterian Church yesterday morning. His sermon on "The Best Drink to Quench Thirst" was given from the text John 7:37-38: "In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, 'If any man thirst let him come unto Me, and drink. He that believeth on Me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.'" A few extracts from the sermon are:

"I make no apology for preaching a sermon with the theme of 'thirst' on a warm day. Don't apologize for the truth at any time, give it straight. One draught of this living

AUTO ASSOCIATION

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY DEALERS MEET AND FORM ORGANIZATION

The automobile, tire and accessory dealers, garage men, battery service and oil station men of the San Fernando Valley met at the White Inn, Glendale, Saturday evening, July 24th, and organized an association that will be known as the San Fernando Valley Automobile Trade Association.

Jesse E. Smith, of the Ford Agency, Glendale, was elected president of the Association. Stafford Harlow, of the Glendale Branch of the Southern California Automobile Club, was elected temporary secretary. Ray Galvin was elected treasurer. Harry White, Ray Galvin and Max Green were appointed as local vice-presidents. The Association begins work with a membership as follows:

Packer & White Auto Co.
Glendale Machine Co., Roy Hinchcliffe.

Smith & Derry,
Barton Bros. Garage,
F. S. Hill Garage,
Max L. Green (Oakland cars),
Auto Electric Service Co.,
Ford Agency, Glendale, Jesse E. Smith.

Bahne Bros.
Reliance Auto Supply Co., Bruce & Ellington, Van Nuys.
Bartlett & French, automobile dealers.

Lankershim Service Station, by Ray Engleson.
Hartwick & Cataldo, Auto Painting, Greasing and Cleaning, Van Nuys.

Tuttle, San Fernando.
Nicholson Garage, Burbank.
Chambers & Felts, Glendale, automobile dealers.

There was present at this meeting Robt. W. Martland of Oakland, secretary and treasurer of the California Automobile Trade Association. There was also present John E. Spencer of Los Angeles, who is secretary of the Los Angeles Association. John W. Maltman, attorney for the Association, was also in attendance.

The State Secretary, Mr. Martland, gave a rousing address in which he pointed out very clearly the need of all automobile, garage, battery, tire and service men belonging to an association. Mr. Martland said it was not necessary that dealers in the same community be unfriendly, and gave proofs where it was an advantage to all to work together in building up the business they represent.

John E. Spencer, secretary of the Los Angeles Association, stated that the association of which he is secretary, has 460 members and explained the great benefit it had been to the dealers who had become members.

John W. Maltman in addressing those present said that Glendale had grown so rapidly since his last visit here that he hardly knew the city, and had to inquire as to the location where the meeting was held before he could find the place. He advised the local dealers of Glendale to build up a strong association, not for the purpose of charging higher prices for their work but for the purpose of protecting the public from unreliable men in the business.

STREIGHTS RETURN TO LONG BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Streight of 226 West Chestnut street are leaving Glendale to make their abode in Long Beach, where they have purchased a home in order that they may be nearer to Mr. Streight's work and also to Mrs. Streight's parents, who live in Long Beach. Mrs. Streight will be well remembered as Miss Marian Carmichael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Carmichael, formerly of 133 South Cedar street, Glendale. Mr. and Mrs. Streight will leave a host of friends in Glendale who wish for them every happiness as they go to their new home. They have promised, however, to visit Glendale frequently and will be heartily welcomed by their many friends here, and especially by the young people of the Glendale Presbyterian Church, where they have been active in the work.

SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE SHOCK

Glendale people who were awake at 4:12 this morning felt a slight earthquake shock, which did not the slightest damage, however. Old Mother Earth seems to be having "fever and ager" shakes about as regularly as the early settlers of the malarial regions along the rivers of the central states.

SHAMROCK LEADING IN FIFTH RACE

CALM DELAYS START OF DECIDING YACHT RACE FOR AMERICA'S CUP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ABOARD THE U. S. DESTROYER GOLDSBOROUGH, (Via Wireless to the United Press.)—July 26.—The wind which was too strong for the fifth race of the series for America's cup Saturday, died down today forcing a delay in starting the deciding contest.

The regatta committee announced that the Shamrock's handicap of six minutes and forty seconds would remain unchanged in today's contest.

The preparatory signal was hoisted at 12:15 for a race over the fifteen mile run before the wind to Mark 5, off Asbury Park, and beating back to the finish. The race was under way at 12:30.

The official starting time was, Shamrock, 12:30:29; Resolute, 12:31:25. At 1:20 the Shamrock was leading by a quarter of a mile but both were becalmed. The Shamrock began to pick up a little land breeze at 12:30 and gained rapidly.

EARLY MORNING TEMBLOR

FRIGHTENS APARTMENT HOUSE DWELLERS AND MANY SEEK OPEN SCANTILY CLAD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, July 26.—A heavy temblor at 4:12 this morning followed by a slight shake at 4:15 frightened many apartment house dwellers.

Westlake Park, in the exclusive residential district, resembled a "back to nature" picnic with scantily clad crowds in attendance. Police and firemen report no damage.

WILL SURRENDER WRANGEL

ALLIES AGREE TO GIVE UP RUSSIAN ANTI-BOLSHEVIK COMMANDER—REDS-POLES NEGOTIATING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, July 26.—It was understood today that the Allies would agree to the Bolshevik demand to surrender General Wrangel, the leader of Southern Russia's anti-Bolshevik forces, preliminary to the signing of the armistice with Poland.

Soviet leaders guarantee Wrangel's safety.

While the Bolshevik and Polish field commanders have begun negotiations it is understood, a report from Warsaw stated that the Poles had recaptured Grodno and that the fighting continues. The Red armies suffered heavy casualties in the fighting along the river Nieman.

JOHNSON DENIED BAIL

HIS APPLICATION SHOULD HAVE GONE BEFORE JUDGE CARPENTER WHO ORIGINALLY SENTENCED HIM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CHICAGO, July 26.—Jack Johnson's first swing in sparring for his freedom was blocked today, when the negro pugilist's application in the federal court for bail was turned down on the ground that the application should have gone before Judge Carpenter, who is now in the hospital. Judge Carpenter originally sentenced Johnson for violation of the Mann act.

GOOD ROADS COUNTRY'S PROBLEM

HARDING SAYS ADMINISTRATION MUST DEAL WITH IMPROVING THE HIGHWAYS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MARION, Ohio, July 26.—It will probably develop that good roads and the encouraging of transportation by motor truck to supplement the work of the railroads will be one task to come before the next administration in the opinion of Warren C. Harding.

Senator Harding amplified his declaration for better highways in his acceptance speech and outlined his views in detail in a communication to the National Association of Motor Truck Salesmen in conference in Chicago.

"There is an obvious tendency to supplement railroad transportation by the use of trucks and it can not be doubted that the country will rely more and more on this mode of transportation," he said.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

GOVERNOR COX INSISTS ON WEEKLY ACCOUNTING TO KENYON SENATORIAL COMMITTEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COLUMBUS, O., July 26.—The Democratic nominees will demand that all campaign expenses as well as campaign donations be submitted weekly to the Kenyon Senatorial committee according to Governor Cox. Cox stated that it was his desire to have the committee reconvene as soon as possible and remain in session during the campaign.

TRIP TO HONOLULU

MR. AND MRS. WM. ALTHOUSE
TOUR ISLANDS, SEE
VOLCANO

"The natives of Hawaii apparently entertain no fear of danger from their proximity to the active volcano in their midst, strange as it may seem to us," said Mrs. Wm. Althouse of 647 North Isabel street, who, with her husband, returned from Honolulu last week, where they had spent several months.

It is about 3971 feet to the top of Kilauea, which is an active volcano, the lava sometimes rising to the top of the fire-pit, which occurred last winter, it is said. When Mrs. Althouse saw it, the lava was about 175 feet from the rim. Rains, in some way, seem to cause a rising of the flow.

The fire-pit or halemauan is about a quarter of a mile across while the old crater is seven miles in diameter. There is an underground river of lava coming from one side of Kilauea which reaches the Kau desert continuing on from there. Not many people live within the immediate danger zone, though practically every inhabitant's life is in danger, should there be a violent eruption.

In 1919 there was a big flow from Mauna Loa the lava bursting out and creating a great cavern on either side of which the lava material seemed to pile up like boulders. At this time a little native hut was in the direct line of the river of lava and on a level with the surrounding land, but in a miraculous way, the flow circled around the little home, leaving it unharmed. At another time, Hilo narrowly escaped destruction, the lava coming within a mile of the town, then diverting to the sea.

There are several extinct volcanoes.

DEATH OF MISS BRACKLEY

Eileen Denese Brackley, daughter of Mrs. Frank Brackley, 247 South Jackson, a niece of C. S. Archer and cousin of Mrs. Warren Roberts of East Elk Ave., died Saturday, July 24th, from the effects of an attack of influenza six months ago. She was born Sept. 19, 1897, hence was nearly 23 years of age. Christian Science services were held over the remains at 9:30 this forenoon, at the Little Church of the Flowers, Pulliam & Kiefer in charge.

SELLS OUT PARTNER

B. F. BOURNE DISPOSES OF C. D. THOM'S HOME IN GLENDAL DURING ABSENCE

B. F. Bourne was down to Santa Monica Sunday to the summer home of his partner in the realty business, C. D. Thom, who, with his wife, is absent on a nation-wide tour of several weeks that included attendance of the Elks' convention in Chicago and a return through the Canadian Rockies. A message was received by the Thom children while Mr. Bourne was in Santa Monica to the effect that their parents had started home from Vancouver that morning. They are expected to arrive next Saturday. Mr. Bourne sent his partner a telegram, to be delivered on the train at the first point where he could be reached, apprising him of the fact that his home at 303 North Isabel had been sold by Mr. Bourne. The purchaser is H. S. Latham, who came to Glendale recently from Illinois and bought A. G. Larson's new Colonial residence at 330 W. Broadway. This he will put on the market. The Thom place will undergo extensive alterations and repair before the Lathams move into it. Mr. and Mrs. Thom will remain in their summer home at Santa Monica until they can find a home in Glendale to occupy.

DINNER PARTY FOR DEPARTING TENNESSEANS

Mrs. Ella Griffin, of 130 West Acacia gave a dinner party, Sunday, at which covers were laid for 11: Mr. and Mrs. John Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alexander and Miss Juanita, Chas. LaDuke and wife, Mrs. Agee, the hostess and her two children, Jim and Jessie. The party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mathis and Mrs. Agee, who will go back to Ridgely, Tenn., the old home, in about a week, to dispose of cotton lands and other property if possible, that all their interests may be centered in Glendale.

PLEASUREABLE TRIP

WEST SIDE RESIDENTS ENJOY
THREE WEEKS' AUTO CAMPING JOURNEY

Mrs. and Mr. Papineau, Mrs. I. H. Donichy, Miss Lorena Headlund, Mrs. Louise Purnell and Joe Poyer left July 3rd for a three weeks' auto tour through Northern California and Oregon. They were at Sequoia National Park. The road up grade to this park was found to be in rough condition. Through Fresno Valley it was very hot, as high as 110 in the shade. The Santa Rosa and Ukiah auto parks are the best on the route. They passed through the beautiful redwood country, where they picked red and yellow raspberries, gooseberries and blackberries, fished in Eel River and caught trout. They traveled two days in the rain, but damp bedding had no terrors as they were all happy. The wild flowers were beautiful. They went through Grant's Pass the 15th, and found good roads to Crater Lake, which alone to see was worth the trip. Many stock farms and much prosperous looking country were seen. They found the roads at Klamath Falls in a very bad condition. They crossed the range at San Jose to Santa Cruz via Big Basin, where a government station is now, and saw many of our maimed boys. They stopped at Atascadero for the last camp, on Pismo Beach. They had little car trouble outside of tires, but were unfortunate in losing things. They camped all the way, took only five meals away from camp, and celebrated Mrs. Donichy's birthday. On this occasion they filled their thermos bottles with ice cream and had cake with candy candles.

No gasoline shortage was experienced, although there were several narrow escapes. Gasoline is more plentiful north. Glendale should have an auto park, for it would be a good advertisement for our city, if a good one, says Mrs. Purnell.

HUNSAKER'S SECOND TRIAL TOMORROW

The second trial of Ogden Hunsaker of Pasadena, charged with reckless driving for running into and overturning the car of Mrs. Charles Julian of La Crescenta at the Adams and Colorado street crossing about 10 days ago, is to come off tomorrow and will attract considerable interest because of several odd features connected with the first trial, at which the jury disagreed. Deputy District Attorney Glover will conduct the case for the state and a Pasadena law firm for the defendant.

MISSION SPA CHANGES HANDS

Mrs. Geo. Whitaker has sold the Mission Spa at 114 North Brand to Frank Crawford and wife of Pasadena, who took charge of the business Thursday. Mrs. Whitaker and her mother established this quaint little refreshment place on January 17th last, the main features being original with them, and Mrs. Whitaker says it has been very successful, but it meant long hours and hard work for her and her daughters. The Whitakers are living at 200 East Chestnut.

GOSPEL TENT

LARGE AUDIENCES ATTEND SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHT SERVICES

Elder Reaser, a returned Seventh-Day Adventist missionary, lectured on "Africa" Saturday night. Elder Reaser spent several years in pioneer mission work in the interior among the natives of Matabeland, Mashonaland, and Bechuanaland.

He first took his hearers through scenes in Old England, showing some of its ancient castles, the home of Shakespeare, the beautiful country residences and parks and cities which still have walls and gates. The trip from Southampton to Madeira Islands, and then for fourteen days on to Capetown was next pictured.

The beautiful harbor of Table Bay, the city so neatly laid out, with modern buildings and red tiled roofs and fine streets, at the foot of Table Mountain, presented a picture very pleasing to the eye, and rarely equalled in grandeur. With 50 inches annual rainfall Capetown is an evergreen spot for the eye to feast upon.

The Hottentot slave market, a relic of former days, was shown, and also types of the polyglot peoples who have settled there, among them the Malaysians from the southeast.

ADVERTISING CHINA

COMPLETE UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN NATIONS COULD BE BROUGHT ABOUT BY PAID PUBLICITY

By CHARLES E. HOGUE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SHANGHAI, July 1.—(By Mail.)—Complete understanding between the nations of the world such as would not have been possible in pre-war days is to be brought about through paid advertising, the value of which was so strikingly demonstrated by the United States during and since the world conflict, in the opinion of J. W. Sanger, special trade commissioner of the United States Bureau for Commerce and Labor. Sanger, who has spent three years in investigation of advertising and commerce in South America, the West Indies and the Far East, was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the recent annual dinner of the Advertising Club of China, member of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

After telling of the war advertising campaigns by the government and the successful publicity used by Washington later, as in the instance of the railroads and the bringing of recruits to the army and navy, the commissioner dealt with advertising in its direct relation to China.

"This country has oranges as fine as any to be found, walnuts that cannot be equalled, teas, spices and a hundred and one things of which the world should know," he declared. "A widespread advertising campaign would not only be a business asset but a national asset as well."

Dr. Fong Sec, president of the club, presided at the banquet and introduced the principal speaker and J. W. Ross, Canadian Trade Commissioner, who made a brief speech in which he highly complimented the club members for their activity and enthusiasm.

That a campaign is to be conducted by the club this year to introduce more western methods of advertising in China was an announcement made by Dr. Fong.

Homer B. Miller and family of 434 West Burchett, returned home Sunday from a very enjoyable trip to Lake Tahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Knox of 109 South Cedar, together with Captain W. F. and Mrs. Smith are seeing Yosemite this week.

Miss Eula Stephenson of 352 Pioneer Drive is spending a few days at Redondo with a friend, Miss Marvel Mounts, who formerly lived in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. LaFountain and little grandson spent the week-end with a daughter, Mrs. Morton Marsh, on the ranch near Roscoe.

Herbert Smith, a teller of the Los Angeles Security Trust & Savings Bank, is spending a few days at the home of W. R. Smith at 519 North Maryland Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Topliff and daughter of Covina, also Mrs. Belle Steine of Portland, Oregon, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lockwood, Sunday.

Fred Brown, now residing at the California apartments, has purchased a lot at 523 North Maryland avenue, where he will erect a new Colonial bungalow in the near future.

Dr. Effie Brown from San Jose who has been visiting relatives in Glendale, returned Sunday from San Fernando where she visited friends. Her nephew, Robert Morton, of San Jose, accompanied her.

Mrs. C. C. Cooper and daughter, Emma Laura, of 302 North Central avenue, are leaving today for their old home in the East, Lincoln, Nebraska. They expect to return to Glendale about the first of September.

A. B. Heacock and family moved Saturday from Compton to the Glendale home at 709 East Windsor Road, which had been put in first-class repair for their reception. Staying with them are Mr. Heacock's parents, L. A. Heacock and wife, who came from the old home in Attica, Kansas, to end their days in Glendale.

Dr. H. R. Harrower, accompanied by Mrs. Harrower and Miss Verna, has gone to Canada on a six weeks' combined business and pleasure trip. They will go as far as Redding in their car, leaving it at that point. The trip will cover considerable territory, stops being made at Vancouver and Victoria and continuing through the Canadian Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fuelscher and children of 118 North Orange street returned Sunday from a week's stay at Long Beach. They are planning a longer trip to Colorado about the 8th of August to visit Mr. Fuelscher's relatives. As they will go in a machine they will take many side trips, going as far east as Nebraska, and returning to Glendale the first of October.

The Broadway School building is coming along splendidly and the contractors promise it will be ready by Dec. 1st. Work on the roof is well along, considerable of the inside plastering has been done and work on the outside plaster cement coating is in progress. It will be by far the most ornamental of all the Glendale school buildings when it is completed.

Father O'Neill informs the Evening News that he heartily endorses the article which appeared in Saturday's paper regarding certain boys who are careless or deliberately attempt to annoy and confuse automobile drivers by getting in their way or weaving back and forth across the road. Father O'Neill says this has happened to him not once but many times and that when he has admonished the boys to be more careful they have been saucy or profane.

Burton L. Smith, country editor of the L. A. Times, was a caller at the Evening News office this forenoon and he marveled greatly to see such a thoroughly equipped, up-to-date newspaper office in a city of the size of Glendale, saying it is the finest he has seen in all his rounds over the state. Mr. Smith also expressed wonder at the great number of classified ads run daily in the Evening News and could hardly believe the statement that no solicitor was sent out after them but all came in over the phone or at the desk.

THE EVENING NEWS OFFICE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS FROM 6:30 O'CLOCK A. M. TO 9:30 P. M. EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK EXCEPT SUNDAY, 139 SOUTH BRAND BOULEVARD. PHONE GLENDAL 132.

VETERANS PICNIC

Friday was a red letter day for N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., and Corps for it was the day set for their annual picnic. About two hundred responded to the call and sat down to tables bountifully laden with good things and decorated with flags in beautiful Echo Park.

A splendid program followed the picnic dinner opening with an invocation by Chaplain C. R. Norton, who was followed by a number of comrades and ladies in happy impromptu speeches. There were splendid talks by Past Department Commanders Martin and Hoskins of Los Angeles and a recitation by Mrs. Eustace Moore was greatly enjoyed. The happy occasion closed with the singing of the National anthem.

J. E. PETERS AND WIFE ON TRIP TO EAST

James E. Peters and wife leave today for a several weeks' visit with relatives and old friends in the East. Their first stop will be at Liberty, Ill., near Quincy, where they will visit Capt. Mercer, son of Geo. D. and brother of Floyd Mercer of 319 North Jackson. They will then go to Urbana, Ill., to visit Mr. Peters' brother, Rev. Harry H., and thence to Indianapolis, Ind., where his mother, brothers and sisters live. Evansville, Ind., and Mt. Carmel, Ill., will be visited also. Oscar Whitaker and wife, who were forced to move from 361 Vine because the place was sold, will occupy a portion of the Peters home at 209 N. Orange and keep the children company while their parents are gone.

FUNERAL OF MRS. OLIVE MARIA EMERY

At the funeral of Mrs. Olive Maria Emery, which took place Saturday afternoon, Dr. Clyde M. Crist gave the parting address, citing the principal incidents in the life of this mother, who is mourned by children and friends. Miss Isabel Isgrig sang two appropriate selections and Mr. Deiger, the well-known Southern California singer, a solo. At the cemetery the duet "In the Garden" was sung by Miss Isgrig and Mr. Deiger, being beautifully rendered.

The pall bearers were to be the four grandsons of Mrs. Emery, Messrs. Owen and Gilbert Emery, Dr. Ralph Lusby of San Fernando and Dr. Raymond Lusby of Glendale, but the latter was unable, on account of illness, to officiate, so his place was taken by Dr. Clarence Hopkins of Los Angeles, who had known the deceased for a number of years. There were many friends in attendance and the floral tributes were many and very beautiful.

Mr. Biddle, secretary of the Los Angeles Auto Accessories Association, gave practical proof of the benefit derived from men of the same craft getting together at stated times and imparting to one another what they know about the business. He reminded those present that there is not any piece of machinery now in use that was entirely built by one man. It has been the efforts of many men. The more frequently men can get together and get an exchange of ideas the more rapid will be the progress of invention. He said it had been stated that it took men 5,000 years to learn to communicate, and then 5,000 years to invent an axe, and 5,000 years to learn to write, and that any organization is valuable to the extent of its good in the community. Mr. Biddle said that the man who with a silk shirt drives an automobile that is not equipped with all the useful accessories indicates that the accessory men are not as good salesmen as the men representing the silk shirt manufacturers.

The organizing of this association seems to be governed purely by business and just motives, and is not for the purpose of increasing the prices, but for the purpose of giving the customer more prompt and more efficient service.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Association would be held on Thursday evening, August 5th, in the offices and show rooms of Bartlett & French, at the corner of Brand boulevard and Harvard St.

canoes, one of which is 780 feet deep, now grown over and lined with vegetation and trees. The different ages of the lava flow are determined by the growth of vegetation. The lava eventually forms a fine silt.

Mrs. Althouse visited only the two islands, Hawaii and Oahu. Honolulu, on the latter island, contains much of beauty and interest. A tour of inspection through the principal pineapple cannery, that of the Hawaiian Pineapple Cannery Co., revealed a very up-to-date establishment, clean and conveniently arranged. Here ripe pineapples are put up in various shapes. The pineapples we get here are picked green or while green. The latest methods and kinds of machinery are now in use there and experiments are being made to further improve. A way has been devised to save all the juice even from the extreme outer shell, making this into syrup for canning. On the journey to Honolulu, Mrs. Althouse had the privilege of having this process explained to her by the chemist of the cannery, who was on board. Besides the fruit canning, the pineapple juice is also bottled as a drink.

There are many new buildings being erected in the business district and everybody seemed busy on the water front.

The natives work as little as possible, the warmth of the climate depriving them of real energy and vim.

The streets present a very gay appearance as the population is composed of practically every nationality, and the various styles and hues of dress make up a sort of kaleidoscopic view. The Chinese women are there in their mandarin robes, the Japanese ladies in their kimonos and the Filipinos with their puff sleeves, bright colored skirts and funny bodices. One sometimes sees a Japanese family on the street, the father and children being dressed in American style while the mother trudges along in her challee kimono.

Flowers are everywhere in evidence, bright and numerous, and the flower leis or garlands are much worn. The paper leis one sees here are a good imitation of the real. Mrs. Althouse has several souvenirs from the Islands, one being a koa wood jar or vase. While all the passengers load themselves with flowers and fruit on returning to the United States, not one is allowed to be brought on shore, all being dumped in the bay. This is done to prevent the introduction of plant disease or the Mediterranean fly which is destructive to citrus fruits.

The bathing particularly attracted Mrs. Althouse, as the water is al-

ern peninsula of Asia, whose women adorn themselves with jewelry to an amazing extent.

The flora, fauna, vegetation and fruits of the land, and the peculiar shaped dwellings in different parts, as well as the methods employed in cultivation, were pleasingly illustrated and described. Immense fields of melons, squashes, grapes, pineapples and meales or Indian corn, surpassing those of California, were thrown on the screen as proof.

The diamond fields of Kimberley were especially interesting. The views shown brought out the processes, old and new, of securing these precious gems. A specimen picture of a day's yield from the great De-Beer's mine, a quart of cleaned diamonds, spread out in neat order, formed a unique and entrancing vision of the treasures held in the depths of the earth. What energy and perseverance men display to secure earthly treasure which, when analyzed, is merely composed of particles of carbon—charcoal—under a law of nature which transforms the common dust we tread upon into the brilliant jewel! These gems range in value up to $100,000. The lecturer stated that millions of dollars worth of these gems were stored up, only a limited quantity being marketed at a time in order to keep up the price. The gospel teaches us that all who submit themselves to the grace and power of the Holy Spirit become transformed into God's likeness and shall shine as brilliantly as the stars forever and ever. Such a conclusion to human trial and suffering is certainly worthy of our best endeavors and perseverance.

The beautiful Victoria Falls, 160 feet high and 375 feet wide, far surpassing our grand Niagara, was finely pictured. An immense cantilever bridge now spans the river above the falls. Fifty miles in the distance this fall can be located by its diffused cloud of spray.

At this point Elder Reaser showed views of some of the mission stations established by the Seventh-Day Adventists in Basutoland and Mashonaland. The first church established under his labors, at the Solusi Mission, 1000 miles from Capetown, consisted of seventy members. Several other missions have since been established, large schools erected and filled with thousands of students. Industries connected with these missions serve to steady the native and make him industrious. The British government recognizing the efficient work done has liberally given large grants of land for the extension of this good work, thus aiding in the rapid spread of missionary enterprise.

The African is as susceptible to Christian influences as the Chinese and others, and this great continent with its many races numbering millions more than the United States has a claim upon the hearts and means of all who love Christ and have the extension of His kingdom, and His coming uppermost in mind. Mohammedanism spread its baneful influence over the land to a great extent in the slave days, and constitutes at present the greatest bar to Christianity, but notwithstanding this, Ethiopia is now "stretching out her hands to God" as foretold by the ancient prophet of Israel. In spite of the war an aggressive work has been going on, and the missionary societies now operating there find more than they can well do to supply the calls for teachers, preachers and medical missionaries.

Sunday evening the subject was "What Must I Do to Be Saved?" Evangelist Prout affirmed that this was the supreme question for all. He presented the theme in three phases: First, man's inability to save himself; second, what God has done to save him; third, man's part in co-operation with God.

As to the first position, the preacher showed by experience that man's methods of salvation were an utter failure. Depravity was as rampant today as ever, and of all teachings none was so pernicious in flooding the world with iniquity as that which denies sin and affirms that evil is good in the process of development. Scripture declares that "all have sinned" and all are sinners. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? When that is possible then it would be possible for man to save himself. But God has provided a way. He might have destroyed man, but could not change His royal law. The only alternative was to ransom man. Christ offered Himself without spot as the price. In yielding this gift, God made an amazing sacrifice. Men will give their lives for a worthy companion or friend, but how vast is the difference when infinite purity is yielded as a ransom to save a creature so depraved as man! "God commended His love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Rom. 5:8.

"By grace are ye saved, through faith. . . . It is the gift of God." Eph. 2:8. Grace is "unmerited" favor. We can never make ourselves commendable to God for salvation. But, said the evangelist, many teach that grace does away with any obligation to keep God's law, that we are free from the law—a modern Bolshevistic idea. Does

JUDAS' CHARACTER

LIFE OF BETRAYER OF JESUS
REVIEWED BY S. D. A.
MINISTER

The life and character of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer of Jesus, formed the basis of the deductions drawn by the speaker, Elder C. S. Prout, at the Seventh-day Adventist church, Saturday.

"So far as the record goes," said Mr. Prout, "Judas was the one disciple whom Christ did not call to follow Him. Judas himself sought to become a member of the inner circle of which Christ was the center, believing that Jesus would set Himself up as a king, and Judas as treasurer would then occupy a high position. Jesus neither repulsed nor welcomed Judas but simply drew attention to His poverty by the words, 'The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests but the Son of Man hath not where to lay His head.' Matthew 8:18. Jesus knew what Judas was looking for, that it was worldly position and honor, not a desire for transformation of life such as the other disciples longed for.

"No doubt those disciples recognized the superior business ability of Judas, his shrewdness, his prepossessing appearance and confident bearing and welcomed him as one whose membership would add prestige to their evangelical work. Judas, on the other hand, had little regard for the impetuous Peter or slow, conscientious John, and believed himself capable of superintending the entire operations of the disciple band. He looked forward to a position somewhat on the order of prime minister."

"Thus Judas became one of Christ's ordained ministers. At no time did Christ expose the character of the selfish disciple to the other loyal followers but quietly allowed Judas to go in and out with them. Even at the last supper after Judas had actually bargained away his Lord, Christ's words in regard to His betrayal did not reveal to the other disciples who the guilty one was. There is shown the forbearance and mercy of Jesus, for up to this time the Spirit of God was still striving with Judas to cause him to throw himself at Jesus' feet and confess all."

"Judging from the last act in the life of the betrayer, who after Jesus was taken, sought to free Him by refunding the purchase price and then in remorse and despair ending his life by hanging, Judas fully expected Christ to miraculously deliver Himself and not allow the mob to take Him. Then, Judas reasoned, the money would be in the bag, and Christ would be free again, which maneuver would show Judas a shrewd manager. But Christ did not deliver Himself and when Judas left the presence of the Savior and went out into the night to betray Him, the door of mercy closed forever behind him and Judas, whose only thought was selfishness, lost all."

"The life of Judas is not only a terrible warning to all who refuse to be transformed by the love and forbearance of God but also contains lessons of hope for all who recognize their evil traits and choose to let Christ remove them and substitute His virtues for Judas had all the advantages of close communion with Jesus that the true disciples had—but his was a proud, unyielding, self-sufficient heart which desired no character molding. His failure was not occasioned by his excessive badness, for he had many traits which properly directed would have made him a power for good; his failure the ransom paid for a man's deliverance from the death penalty free him from the obligation to obey the law? "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid," said the Apostle Paul; "yea, we establish the law." Rom. 3:31. The law is thus made honorable. God's mercy in no wise releases us from rendering loving obedience to Him. It is His grace and power which make obedience possible. The new covenant provides for a change of heart, and God has pledged Himself to put His law in the heart, and write it in the mind. Heb. 8:10. "He that saith, I know Him and keepeth not His Commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." 1 John 2:4. Obedience is the evidence of genuine faith, for "faith without works is dead, being alone." James 2:17.

The part man has in his salvation is to co-operate with God. As God works in us to will and to do of His good pleasure, it is ours to work out His will. Hence, it is no more "I that doeth it, but Christ who dwelleth in me." What man needs to learn is the surrender of his sinful heart that God may by His continual yielding, mould and fashion him after His own similitude and enable him to render loving and complete obedience.

An earnest appeal was made for those present to yield themselves to God as instruments of righteousness, that "now being made free from sin"—the transgression of God's law—"and become servants to God"—obedient to His law—"ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life." Rom. 6:22.

water will satisfy. It will kill pride and lust and conceit. God can't use a person full of pride and conceit. A sickly man does not ask for water. If you are not thirsty for God's love then you are sick spiritually and there is something lacking. Nothing will cleanse us from sin but the blood of Jesus Christ. The devil tries to sidetrack us and lead us away from Salvation. God pity the church that the devil doesn't bother. If any man rich or poor, high or low, comes and drinks at this fountain out of him shall flow rivers of living water. After you have drunk yourself, give to others. Sow with one hand and reap with the other. A well from which you can draw water is fine but an artesian well is a great deal better. Don't bother about the pouring out, just drink, and God will attend to the outpouring. What are you thirsting for today? Every thirst is legitimate if it is used for the glory of Jesus Christ."

Sunday evening H. L. Finlay, superintendent of the Sunday School, gave an address on "Three Years in the Philippines." His talk and the curios with which he illustrated it, were interesting and delightful to all who were fortunate enough to be present. Mr. Finlay gave events taken from his own personal experiences in the Philippines. Of the Filipino, he said in part:

"Some of the most notable characteristics of the natives are their universal love of music, their care of the aged, imitating ability, aversion to manual labor, artistic taste, and politeness." The latter part of the address was given to a brief history of the work of the United States government in the Philippines and the achievements of the Christian missionaries and the general advance in civilization among the people of the Islands.

came as a result of self-satisfaction, a condition for which there is little hope.

"Today God allows Christians to be brought into places and under circumstances which bring out the evil traits that are concealed in their hearts, often unknown even to themselves. No evil traits of character will be allowed in Heaven. Now is the time to get rid of all imperfections of character, overcoming them as the Lord reveals them to us through the trials that come. 'He that covereth his sins shall not prosper.' The door of probation will some day close for every soul. Where will you be, safe inside or out in the dark forever?"

Vacation Time is The Thief's Time

It is surprising to read of the constantly increasing number of burglaries committed during the summer period when many people close their homes without making provision for the safety of their valuables while they are away.

A great many articles of the household can be so easily removed that it seems almost criminal to leave them unprotected and this is especially true since our vaults, absolutely protected from fire and burglars, offer safety at the minimum of cost.
